PROTEST RELIEF OF UKRAINIAN REFUGEES IN LEMBERG.

Warsaw: (By I. J. P. B.) The Polish newspaper "Rzeczpospolita" protests against the decision of Lemberg merchants to aid Ukrainian refugees, who are swamping the city, by taxing purchasers two per cent on each sale of merchandise. The newspaper states that Poles are not supposed to be taxed for the benefit of Jews.

RABBI JOSEPH SILVERMAN RESIGNS.

Dr. Joseph Silverman, for nearly thirty-three years rabbi of Temple Emanu-El, New York, presented his resignation Monday night to the board of trustees at the annual meeting of the congregation held in the vestry rooms. A desire to devote himself more exclusively to literature and to communal work prompted his decision to quit the active ministry.

Although Dr. Silverman's wish to retire was placed before the congregation by Louis Marshall, President of the Board of Trustees and of the Congregation, definite action on it was adjourned to a meeting to be held January 17. Mr. Marshall explained that the Trustees desired time to consider Dr. Silverman's request, which undoubtedly would be granted, and to make some arrangements.

While it was said to be likely that Dr. Silverman would be elected Rabbi Emeritus for life, no thought has yet been taken as to his successor.

A society to supply new comers with information as to the various possibilities of Palestine, and to encourage private initiative in the development of its industries, is in the process of formation in Jaffa. A group of new immigrants are especially interested in advancing the projects.
